

“I have placed before you an open door.”
(Revelation 3:8)

Today is the beginning of the rest of your life, and a new opportunity to put some things “in place”. Don’t carry the patterns of defeat of your past into this new day. Here are 6 daily suggestions.

1. Pray no matter how busy you are! If you do, God promises to direct you. (Proverbs 3:6). The difference between drifting and being directed is in acknowledging Him.
2. Read His Word. That’s what produced new life in Sarah’s dead womb, and calmed the storm on Galilee. Jesus said, “You can’t live by bread alone, you must have my word. (Matthew 4:4).
3. Tell your family you love them! If you feel awkward, read your Bible and see how often God says it to you, and then take a leaf out of His book.
4. Open yourself to new relationships! God says, “I will bless thee... and I will make you a blessing” (Gen. 12:3). You are the carrier of somebody else’s blessings. If you shut the door to blessings going out, you also shut the door to blessings coming in.
5. Keep yourself pure and open to hear from God. When God needed someone to lead Saul of Tarsus to Christ, Ananias said, “I am here Lord.” (Acts 9:10). Can you say that? Be ready and available for what God wants to do today.
6. Maintain a positive attitude! Dominate your space with faith. When conversation turns negative, steer it back to “whatsoever things are good” (Phil. 4:8).

God says, “I have placed before you an open door” (Rev. 3:8). Walk through that door, and make this the greatest season of your life!
